SEXUAL VIOLENCE PREVENTION:
Policies, Procedures, and Resources
University of Pennsylvania

POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Sexual Violence, Relationship Violence, and Stalking Policy
Student Guidelines for Sexual Violence Policy
Student Disciplinary Procedures for Resolving Complaints of Sexual Assault, Sexual Violence, Relationship Violence and Stalking
Policy on Consensual Sexual Relations Between Faculty and Students
Sexual Harassment Policy
Alcohol and Drug Policy
Code of Student Conduct
Non-Retaliation Policy

EMERGENCY RESOURCES

Division of Public Safety/Special Services (DPS) 215-898-6600
Crime investigation, victim support, accompaniment to medical and legal proceedings, safety education.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) 215-898-7021
Free and confidential individual and group therapy and advocacy, including for sexual trauma.

Student Health Service (SHS) 215-746-3535
Affordable medical evaluation and treatment from male and female providers.

Student Intervention Services (SIS) 215-898-6081
Case management of incidents involving student welfare and safety. Support and academic and housing accommodations for both parties in cases of alleged sexual violence.

INVESTIGATIVE RESOURCES

Sexual Violence Investigative Officer 215-898-2887
Manages and investigates complaints by students against students alleging violations of the Sexual Violence, Relationship Violence and Stalking Policy.

Assistance and resolution (informal or formal action) in reported cases where students allege sexual harassment or discrimination by faculty or staff.

SUPPORT AND REFERRAL RESOURCES

Office of Sexual Violence Prevention and Education 215-898-6081
Works to prevent sexual violence and educate students about dating/domestic violence, stalking, consent, and bystander intervention.

Penn Women’s Center (PWC) 215-898-8611
Confidential advocacy, support, and options counseling for sexual violence victims, regardless of gender identity or sexual orientation.

Office of the Chaplain 215-898-8456
Provides pastoral support, guidance, or informal advising and counseling to victims and accused students.

International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) 215-898-4661
Information and referrals on personal or professional matters including adjusting to U.S. cultural norms and laws.

Students are encouraged to inquire about confidentiality when seeking assistance and support from the varying offices. Under the Clery Act, federal law mandates the disclosure of certain statistics regarding sexual violence that occurs within the geographic boundaries of an institution of higher education. Clery Act reports do not include the names of anyone involved or any other information that identifies an individual.